ULGStaffing acquires STAFFWORKS
February 19, 2018

ULG Staffing (www.ulgstaffing.com), a Division of ULG Companies, LLC, (www.ulgcompanies.com) is pleased to announce the acquisition of the assets of STAFFWORKS, an Indianapolis-based light industrial staffing firm, effective February 11, 2018.

Lucinda Comer, President of ULG Staffing, stated: “We are very excited to have the STAFFWORKS team join the ULG family of companies. Our companies share a common culture of outstanding client and employee service, and together we can provide an extended geographic and product scope to the Indiana industrial labor market”.

Tim Flynn, President of STAFFWORKS, commented: “I am pleased to have our company and team join forces with ULG. Together we will have substantially more recruiting and technology resources to assist our clients and employees, and be a more complete strategic workforce and employment solution in the communities that we serve”.

The acquired entity will continue to operate from their 5702 E. 71st Street location under the STAFFWORKS, a Division of ULG Staffing name. There are no changes in headcount or personnel at STAFFWORKS.

ULG Companies, LLC is a privately owned national industrial staffing company with 14 offices across the country. ULG is headquartered in Logansport, Indiana, with their National Recruiting Center based in Indianapolis. The company has three operating Divisions – ULG SkilledTrades, ULG Marine and ULG Staffing, who combined serve clients and employees in 43 states.
